

School Culture 360 Survey

Summary Highlights

Columbia Adventist Academy

2025

What are students saying about CAA?

CAA Students told Johns Hopkins University researchers in the Fall of 2025 that at their School

- Students feel heard, cared for, and safe
- Bullying is rare, and respect is the norm
- Expectations and rules are clear and consistent
- Teachers challenge students, push them to do their best, and believe they can succeed
- Learning here stretches our thinking—students explain their ideas, work hard, and help one another learn
- Students feel happy, connected, and proud of their school

Students also shared that CAA:

- Feels welcoming to students of all faith backgrounds
- Cares deeply about their spiritual and emotional well-being
- Promotes academic rigor, character formation, and safety
- Prepares students for college, careers, and life
- Instills the responsibility to live out Gospel values in the world

